

Erratum

Vol. 21, Number 3, in the article "Microbial control and integrated pest management" by Lawrence A. Lacey and James D. Harper, pages 206-213, the European spruce sawfly, Gilpinia hercyniae (Hartig), was erroneously designated as Cephus pygmaeus (L.). Also, references to W. A. Dickerson (1986) should have been cited as footnote 4 stating "Dickerson, W. A. Interactions of integrated pest management and biological control. Introduction to a report prepared for the Southeastern Biological Control Working Group, January, 1984."
